

INDEX

ADAMS, John, defends the British troops for the Boston massacre, 132; elected vice-president of U. S., 142.
 Adams, John Quincy, fac-simile of acoustic by, 469.
 Adams, Samuel, opposed to a standing army in the colonies, 131.
 Adkins, Milton S., growth of a great National Library, 1800-1889, 229.
 Allen, Prof. Alexander V. G., life of Jonathan Edwards, noticed, 438.
 America, the earliest American people, 124; the three-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of, 317, 319; the first iron works in, 404; first fire-engine, 406; first printing press in, 423; first editions of the Bible printed in, 501.
 American Colonies, England's struggle with the, William W. Taylor, 121; the question of taxation without representation, 122; non-importation, 123; the trade with England, 123; the reign of George II. and III., 124; the ministry of Pitt and Bute, 125; the policy of Walpole and Newcastle, 127; measures of Lord Grenville, 127; the stamp act, 128; Colonial Congress organized, 128; opposition of George III. to the, 129, 130, 135, 136; parliament assumes the right to tax the, 129; Pitt justifies the resistance of the, 130; majority of the ministers favor the repeal of the stamp act, 130; stamp act repealed, 130; tax on tea, 131; parliament urges coercive measures, 132; Lord North favors the repeal of all port duties, 132; the Boston massacre, 132; destruction of tea, 133; British schooner Gaspee captured and set on fire, 133; agents appointed to represent the, in England, 134; Franklin opposes hasty separation of the, from England, 134; England depends on the impossibility of colonial union, 135; Continental Congress organized, 135, 136; Hessians and Germans employed to oppose the, 135; Dickinson's Farmer Letters, 137; cannon seized in R. I., 137; removal of troops opposed in parliament, 137; Lord North's conciliatory measures, 138; the battles of Lexington and Bunker Hill, 138; Continental Congress petitions the King, 138; opposition to the war in the, 139; declaration of independence, 140; a high level of civilization in the, 141; magazines and newspapers, 142; treaty of peace, 142.
 American Fur Company, founded, 270.
 American Literature, library of, vol. vii., noticed, 87.

American Possibilities, 78.
 American Resorts, noticed, 87.
 American Revolution, the last twelve days of Maj. John André, 40, 148; sketch of Col. William S. Smith, 74; the last surviving soldier of the, 80, 170, 258; England's struggle with the American Colonies; 121; first steps towards the, 133; destruction of the Gaspee, 133; Continental Congress organized, 135; siege of Boston, 137; battles of Lexington and Bunker Hill, 138; capture of Ticonderoga and Crown Point, 138; burning of Norfolk, Va., 139; Charleston, S. C., destroyed, 139; declaration of independence, 140; treaty of peace, 142; execution of André, 154, 254; the Livingston sugar house, N. Y., 190; the prisoners captured at Long Island and Fort Washington confined in N. Y., 190; prison ships, 191; view of the sugar house prison, N. Y., 191; British occupy N. Y., 191; the cannon captured from Gen. Burgoyne, 350; new materials for the history of the, noticed, 351; Charles Carroll of Carrollton, 353; narrative of the capture and escape of Dr. John F. D. Smith, 1775, 421; Knowlton's Rangers and the battle of Harlem Heights, 434; Count Vergennes and Beaumarchais aids the, 435; Joseph Hawley, the Northampton statesman, 480; address to the minutemen of Northampton, Mass., 1774, 492; the Chaplains of the American army, from 1775, 513.
 André, Maj. John, the last twelve days of Part II., J. O. Dykmar, 491; Part III., 148.
 Annapolis, Md., centennial of St. John's College, and inauguration of Washington held at, 256, 257.
 Appleton, Maj. Samuel, his interest in the first iron works in America, 407; commands the Massachusetts troops in the Indian war, 407; one of the witchcraft judges, 407; bronze tablet commemorative of, 407.
 Apprentices' Library, N. Y., founded, 98.
 "Aristides," nom de plume of William F. Van Nocker, 170.
 Armistage, Rev. Thomas, D.D., extract of memorial sermon on the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 4.
 Arnold, Lt.-Col. A. K., unpublished letter of Capt. Walter, on the enlistment of colored troops, 1514, contributed by, 253.
 Arnold, Gen. Benedict, informed of the capture of Maj. André, 56, 149; escapes to the Vulture, 150.

Arthur, Chester A., life of, noticed, 518.
 Astor, John Jacob, founds the American Fur Company, 270.
 Augusta, Ga., the introduction of negroes in, 1738, 288.
 Austin, John Osborne, Ancestry of thirty-three Rhode Islanders, noticed, 175.
 Authors, famous, 258.

BACHE, Theophylacht, residence in N. Y. City, 190.
 Backus, James, in charge of French emigrants to Ohio, 475.
 Bakeman, Daniel F., the last surviving soldier of the revolution, 258.
 Baker, Charles Whiting, Monopolies and the People, noticed, 439.
 Baldwin, M. M., Washington and William the Silent—a parallel, 41.
 Ballou, Rev. Daniel, sketch of Silas Wright, 509, 514.
 Bancroft, Hubert Howe, History of the North Mexican States and Texas, vol. ii., noticed, 263; a chapter from the History of Utah, 358; history of the Pacific States of North America, vol. xxi., noticed, 437.
 Barber, Rev. J. L., conducts religious services in Milwaukee, 1835, 275.
 Bard, Samuel, M.D., mentioned, 202.
 Barlow, Joel, his interest in the Scioto lands, 471.
 Barlow, Samuel Latham Mitchill, portrait, 265; poetic tribute to, George Ticknor Curtis, 310; sketch of, 315.
 Barnes, J. R., a relic of Washington's saddle, a poem, 76.
 Barth, Count de, his interest in Scioto lands, 476.
 Bates, James L., Life and Work of Alfred Kelly, noticed, 176.
 Bayard, Thomas F., photographic group of, and others, 11.
 Bayley, Richard, M.D., mentioned, 202.
 Beaumarchais, P. A. C., his plan for aiding the American colonies, 435.
 Belknap, Jeremy, founder of the first historical society, 317; commemorative discourse on the discovery of America by Columbus, 319.
 Bemis Heights, N. Y., tablets placed on the battlefield of, 350.
 Benton, Robert A., Journal of a trip to Niagara in 1835, by Caroline Spencer, contributed by, 331.
 Bible, first editions of the, printed in America, 501.
 Biddle, Henry D., Journal of Elizabeth Drinker, 1759-1807, noticed, 440.

- Black, Alexander, the story of Ohio, noticed, 86.
- Bolzins, Rev. Martin, protests against the introduction of negroes in the colony of Georgia, 290.
- Bookmaking, the earliest, 509.
- Book Notices, July—Howard's Introduction to the Local Constitutional History of the U. S., 86; Black's Ohio, 86; Goode's Fisheries and Fishery of U. S., 87; James' American Resorts, 87; Stedman and Hutchinson's Library of American Literature, vol. vii., 87.
- August*—Chambers' U. S., 174; Riddles' Life of Benjamin F. Wade, 194; Rowlands' engraving of Copley's painting Charles I., 174; John Marsh Genealogy, 174; Austin's Ancestry of thirty-three Rhode Islanders, 175; Kelton's Indian names near the Great Lakes, 175; Mass. Historical Society Collections, Sixth Series, vol. iii., 175; MacCoun's Historical Geography of U. S., 176; Bates' Life of Alfred Kelly, 176; Seller's County of Huntingdon, 176.
- September*—Moses' Illinois, 262; Hakes' Family Genealogy, 262; Bancroft's North Mexican States and Texas, vol. ii., 263; Whitman's Washingtons and their connection with Warton, England, 263; Turchin's Chickamauga, 263; Connecticut's first Constitution celebration, 264; Del Monte's tragical history of Aaron Burr, a play, 264.
- October*—Morse's Benjamin Franklin, 321; Morse's Federal Government of Switzerland, 321; Durand's new materials for the history of the American Revolution, 252.
- November*—Bancroft's Pacific States of North America, vol. xxi., 437; Waggoner's Toledo, Ohio, 437; Allen's Jonathan Edwards, 438; Yale College Class of 1855, 439; Baker's Monopolies and the People, 439; Dickens' Letters, 439; Biddle's Journal of Elizabeth Drinker, 1759-1807, 440.
- December*—Davis' Mississippi, 517; Appeal to Pharaoh, the Negro problem, 517; Mitchell's English Lands, Letters, and Kings, 518; Stoddard's Hayes, Garfield, and Arthur, 518; Cooke's Driver Family, 518; Gilman's Boston, 519; Michigan Pioneer collections, vols. xii. and xiii., 520; Heaton's Vermont, 520; the Lost Dispatch, noticed, 520.
- Bosomworth, Rev. Thomas, introduces negroes as slaves on his plantation in Ga., 299.
- Boston, Mass., troops arrive at, 1768, 131; massacre, March 2, 1770, 132; destruction of tea, 1773, 133; additional troops arrive at, 176; siege of, 137; celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, 319; mint established in, 1652, 405; first fire-engine in America, built in, 406; the story of, noticed, 510.
- Boston, U. S. Ship, 11.
- Boyd, Capt. Ebenezer, his testimony at the trial of Joshua HeltSmith, 50.
- Boynton, James S., governor of Georgia, 1883, 309.
- Braddock's Field, deed of, 411.
- Brevoort, John, residence in N. Y. City, 190.
- Brougham, Lord, Portrait, 441; the early career of, and some of his contemporaries. Mrs. Martha F. Lamb, 441.
- Brown, Joseph E., governor of Georgia, 1857-1865, 309.
- Brownson, Nathan, governor of Georgia, 1781, 308.
- Brush, Edmund Cone, John Gray, the last surviving soldier of the revolution, 170.
- Bryan, Jonathan, acting president and commander-in-chief of Georgia, 1776, 307.
- Bulloch, Archibald, president and commander-in-chief of Georgia, 1776, promulgates the declaration of independence, 307.
- Bullock, Rufus B., governor of Georgia, 1868-1871, 309.
- Bunker Hill, Battle of, 138.
- Burgoyne, Gen. John, the cannon captured from, 350.
- Burke, Edmund, colonial agent for N. Y., 134, 137.
- Burnham, Maj. John, in employ of the Ohio Company, 475.
- Burr, Aaron, the charges against, 1790; his interest in politics in N. Y. City, 200; the tragical history of, a play, noticed, 264.
- Burton, M. P., the phrase "trifles make perfection, and perfection no trifles," 257.
- CAMPBELL, John A., letter, April 7, 1865, on the restoration of Virginia, 221.
- Canada, the French expelled from, 126; the war of the revolution unsuccessful in, 138.
- Cape Fear Gazette, and Mercury, newspapers, established, 1764, 1769, 430.
- Carre, Louis, mentioned, 103.
- Carroll, Charles, of Carrollton, portrait, 353; home of Mrs. Martha F. Lamb, 353; view of the manor-house of, 355; fac-simile of a letter of, to Washington, Sept. 26, 1775, 356; letter to Washington, January 28, 1779, declining the appointment of Indian commissioner, 506.
- Carthcart, Lord William S., his marriage, 189.
- Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the masonic library in, 371; view of the library, 371.
- Chambers, Henry E., History of U. S., noticed, 174.
- Channing, William Ellery, sketch of Thoreau, 84.
- Charles I., Copley's painting of, demanding the five impeached members, 174.
- Chase, Enoch, M.D., portrait, early settler of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 275; his wife the second white woman in Milwaukee, 275.
- Chatham, Earl of, public services of, 125, 134, 137.
- Cherokee Indians, progress of education among the, 260.
- Chicago Historical Society, July 16, meeting, The Story of Tonty, by Mrs. Mary H. Catherwood, 259.
- Chicago, U. S. Ship, 11.
- Chickamauga, battle of, noticed, 263.
- Choh, a Navajo artist, drawings of, 462; portrait, 465.
- Christie, Thomas, recorder of Savannah, Ga., in favor of the introduction of negroes in the colony of Georgia, 290.
- Clark, Gen. George R., expedition to Illinois, 417.
- Clarke, George, New York's great land-owner, sketch of, 246; family and ancestry of, 248.
- Clarke, John, Governor of Georgia, 1820-1822, 308.
- Cleveland, Grover, portrait, 19; remarks of at the centennial banquet, 30.
- Clinton, Gov. George, his residence in N. Y., 186.
- Clinton, Sir Henry, his exertions in behalf of Maj. André, 154.
- Cobb, Howell, governor of Georgia, 1851-1852, 309.
- Cock, Townsend D., act of assessment for Oyster Bay, L. I., May 1, 1717, 253.
- Coe, John, Maj. André at the house of, 152.
- Colonial Congress, organized at N. Y., opposed to the stamp act, 128.
- Colored Troops, enlistment of, 1814, 252.
- Colquitt, Alfred H., governor of Georgia, 1876-1882, 309.
- Columbus, Christopher, celebrations of the three-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by, 317; ode and monument to, 320, 321; prizes for essays on, 344.
- Conley, Benjamin, governor of Georgia, 1871-1873, 309.
- Connecticut, celebration of the first constitution of, noticed, 264.
- Connecticut Historical Society, annual meeting, election of officers, 81; field day, June 4th, to Deerfield, Mass., 81.
- Continental Congress, organized, meet at Phila., 135; dissolves, and meet again, 1775, 136; parliament refuses to receive the petition of, 137; proceedings of, 138; declare independence, 140.
- Cook, Lieut. Col., favors the introduction of negroes in the colony of Georgia, 295.
- Cooke, Harriet Ruth, the Driver family, noticed, 518.
- Cooper, J. Fennimore, Financial Condition of New York in 1833, 328.
- Cooper, Susan Fennimore, Financial Condition of N. Y. in 1833, contributed by, 328.
- Copley, John Singleton, painting of Charles I. demanding the five impeached members, noticed, 174.
- Corrigan, Rt. Rev. John, D.D., officiates at literary exercises of the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 25.
- Cox, Maj. James, Major André at the house of, 151.
- Crandell, W. I., Land of My Birth, a poem, 426.
- Crane, Azariah, one of the founders of Newark, N. J., presents silver bowl to Christ Church, Newark, 348.
- Crane, C. Sidney, Azariah Crane's silver bowl, 348.

Crawford, George W., Governor of Georgia, 1843-1847, 309.
 Crèvecoeur, St. John de, first French Consul to New York after the Revolution, William Seton, 234; the patriotism of, 512.
 Crown Point, N. Y., captured, 138.
 Curtis, George Ticknor, poetic tribute to Samuel Latham Mitchill Barlow, 310.
 Cutler, Manasseh, agent of Ohio company, purchases the Scioto lands, 1787, 470, 483.
 Cutler, W. P., Private Contract Provision in Ordinance of 1787, 483.

DAMEN, Jan Jansen, his plantation in N. Y. City, sketch of, 177; view of his farm-house, 1646, 180.

Darien, Ga., settled by Highlanders, 289.

Dartmouth, Lord, conciliatory measures of, towards the colonies, 138.

Davis, Myrick, president of the council of Georgia, 1781, 308.

Davis, James, first printing press in North Carolina, property of, 430; establishes the N. C. Gazette, 1755, 430.

Davis, Reuben, Recollections of Mississippi and Mississippians, noticed, 517.

Dawes, E. C., The Scioto Purchase in 1787, 470.

Dedham Historical Society, annual meeting, election of officers, 171.

Deerfield, Mass., the Indian Massacres at, 81.

De Lancey, Edward F., the methods and characteristics of the administration of Washington, 81.

Delaware, some of the beginnings of, Wilmington settled by the Swedes, 1638, William W. Taylor, 393.

Del Monte, Leon, the tragical history of Aaron Burr, a play, noticed, 264.

Depeew, Chauncey M., photographic group of, and others, 9; address on the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 24.

De Peyster, Abraham, mayor of N. Y., erects mansion, 185; his guests, 186; presents bell to the Middle Dutch church, 187.

De Peyster, Gen. John Watts, tribute to John W. Hamersley, 224.

Despatch, U. S. Ship, 8.

De Witt, Rev. Thomas, conducts farewell services in the Middle Dutch church, 1844, 194.

Dey Family, property of the, in N. Y. City, 183, 184.

Dickens, Charles, letters of, 1833-1870, noticed, 439.

Dickinson, John, influence of his "Farmers' Letters" in the colonies, 137.

Dix, Rev. Morgan, D.D., officiates at commemorative services of the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 20.

Dobell, John, opposes the introduction of negroes in the colony of Georgia, 296, 298.

Dorchester Immigrants, settle in Georgia, 1752, 305.

Downing, Samuel, the last surviving soldier of the revolution, 80, 238.

Drinker, Elizabeth, Journal of, 1759-1807, noticed, 440.

Driver Family, Genealogy, noticed, 518.

Drown, Henry T., declaration of Count d'Estaing, 1778, contributed by, 427.

Dudington, Lieut. William, commander of the British schooner Gaspee, his vessel captured and set on fire, 1772, 133.

Duer, Col. William, his interest in the Scioto lands, 471.

Dunlap, William, describes the sugar house prison in N. Y. City during the revolution, 190; ancestry of, 191.

Dunmore, Lord, burns Norfolk, Va., and escapes, 149.

Dunn, J. P., Jr., the founding of Post Vincennes, 143.

Duportail, Gen. Lebegue, mentioned, 472.

Durand, John, new materials for the history of the American revolution, noticed, 352.

Dysman, J. O., the last twelve days of Maj. John André, Part II., 49; Part III., 148.

EARLY, Peter, Governor of Georgia, 1813-1814, 308.

Edwards, Jonathan, life of, noticed, 438.

Edmont, Earl of, first president of the council of trustees of Georgia, 307.

Elbert, Samuel, Governor of Georgia, 1785, 308.

Electricity, uses of, 347.

Elliot, Charles W., remarks of, at the centennial banquet, 31.

Elizabeth, N. J., reception to President Harrison at, 6.

Elizabeth, princess, maids of honor of, share her captivity, 433.

Elliot, Lieut.-Gov. Andrew, residence of, in N. Y. City, 189.

Ellis, Henry, second royal Governor of Georgia, 1757-1766, 307.

Emanuel, David, Governor of Georgia, 1801, 308.

Emmet, Thomas Addis, M.D., illustrations from the collection of, 353.

Unpublished letters of Charles Carroll, 1775 and 1793, contributed by, 356, 506.

England, her struggle with the American Colonies, 121.

English lands, Letters and Kings, noticed, 518.

English and Scotch capitalists, investments in U. S., 168.

Equitable Building, N. Y. City, view of, 181.

Estaing, Count d', a declaration addressed in the name of the King of France to all the ancient French in North America, 1778, 427.

Esta-Yeshi, a Navajo Indian, portrait, 163.

Evarts, William M., remarks of, at the centennial banquet, 31.

Everett, J. S., the earliest American people, 114.

Ewen, William, president of the council of safety of Georgia, 1775, 307.

FEATHER, a, in one's cap, origin of the phrase, 511.

Ferguson, Clement, first editions of the Bible printed in America, 501.

Fire engine, first built in America, 406.

Fish, Stuyvesant, photographic group of, and others, 11.

Fitch, John, his controversy with James Rumsey in regard to the steamboat, 244.

Fitzgerald, David, Kit-Cat pictures, 349.

Flint, Royal, his interest in the Scioto lands, 471.

Florida, early voyages to, 38.

Foot, Capt. Ebenezer, examines the pass of Maj. André, 51.

Foraker, Gov. J. B., photographic group of, and others, 9.

Forsyth, John, Governor of Georgia, 1827-1829, 308.

Fort George, Providence, R. I., cannon seized at, 1774, 137.

Fort Perrot, Wis., established 1685, 498.

Fowler, Albert, first justice of the peace in Wisconsin, 270.

Fowler, Elijah, M.D., ancestry of, 271.

Franklin, Benjamin, his views on the independence of the colonies, 134; removed from the office of postmaster-general, 134; letter to English government in behalf of Mass., 135; experiments with electricity in the Middle Dutch church, N. Y. City, 194; his belief in the steamboat, 244; anecdote of, 347; life of, noticed, 351.

Free Masonry, library of, 371; rare books on, 360.

French, the, expelled from Canada, 165; emigrants settle in Ohio, 475, 476.

French Church, N. Y., view of, 187.

Fulton, Robert, portrait, 201; services of, 203.

GAGE, Gen. Thomas, appointed Gov. of Mass., 135.

Gales, Joseph, Jr., establishes the newspaper, the Raleigh Register, 1799, 430.

Gallipolis, Ohio, settled by the French, 480.

Garay, Francisco de, send expedition to Florida, 1510, 38; map of Florida and the Gulf, 39.

Gardiner, Asa Bird, the Chaplains of the American army, 513.

Garfield, James A., life of, noticed, 518.

Gaspee, destruction of the British schooner, 1772, 133.

Gates, Merrill E., life and its activities, 160.

Gay, Frau B., the pamphlet, an examination of the various charges against Aaron Burr, 170.

General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen of N. Y., the career of a beneficent enterprise, Mrs. Martha T. Lamb, 89; fac-simile of membership, 91; buildings of, 93, 95, 103; interior of library, 101.

Genesee Valley, N. Y., aboriginal history of the, 171.

George III., character of, 129; opposed to the independence of the colonies, 129, 135, 136.

Georgia, the only free colony; how the negro came, H. A. Scamp, 280; charter of, respecting slavery,

- 280; act prohibiting the importation and use of black slaves in, 282; indenture of German servants, 282; reasons for excluding negroes from the colony of, 282, 285; population of the colony of, confined to five towns, 285; Spanish intrigues, 286, 287; proposed colony for fugitives, negroes, and others, 287; first attempt to introduce negroes in, 288; petition for the admission of negroes, 289, 301; clergy in favor of negro slavery in, 292; trustees of, opposed to introduction of negroes, 293, 299; the opposition to the trustees, 294, 295; committee appointed to consider the introduction of negroes, 296; memorial of Prince of Wirtemberg, a slave, 296; the case of John Peter, a slave, 296; regulations for the admission of negroes, 302; the import duty on negroes, 304; trustees petition to surrender their charter, 305; population of the emigrant colony, 1752, 1753, 305; first royal Governor appointed, 305; the negro population of, 306; Kings, Presidents, and Governors of, 1732-1889, Charles C. Jones, Jr., 307.
- Germaine, Lord George, opposed to the independence of the colonies, 136.
- Germans, employed in the British army, 136; indentured servants in Georgia, 281.
- Germantown, Pa., land tortoise of 1717, found at, 1795, 256.
- Gervaise, Jean Gabriel, his interest in the Scioto lands, 480.
- Gilbert, John, Maj. André at the home of, 148.
- Gilman, Arthur, the story of Boston, noticed, 519.
- Gilmer, George R., governor of Georgia, 1829-1831, 1837-1839, 309.
- Goode, George Brown, the Fisheries and Fishery Industries of the U. S., noticed, 87.
- Goodwin Daniel, sketch of Robert C. Winthrop, 72.
- Gordon, Sir George, mentioned, 193.
- Gordon, John B., present governor of Georgia, elected 1886, 309.
- Gordon, Thomas, one of the proprietors of N. J., 193.
- Graham, A. A., early North-western history, 82.
- Graham, Patrick, President of the colony of Georgia, 1753-1754, 307.
- Grant, Gen. U. S. President Lincoln's visit to Richmond, Va., 211; and the French, 502.
- Gray, John, the last surviving soldier of the revolution, 170, 258.
- Greene, Gen. Nathaniel, presides at the trial of Maj. André, 154.
- Grenville, George, public services of, 127.
- Griffin, transport arrives on the Delaware with Swedish colony, 1638, 395.
- Gronan, Rev. Israel, protests against the introduction of negroes in the colony of Georgia, 290.
- Guion, Capt. Isaac, in charge of emigrants to the Scioto lands, 476.
- Gwinnett, Button, president and commander-in-chief of Georgia, 1777, 307.
- HABERSHAM, James, acting Governor of Georgia, 1771, 307.
- Haines, A. A., the Wellings of Warwick, 83.
- Hakes Family Genealogy, noticed, 262.
- Hale, Nathan, mentioned, 152.
- Hall, Lyman, Governor of Georgia, 1783, 308.
- Hammersley, Andrew, his aid to the American pioneers in N. Y. City, hospitality of, family and ancestry of, 193.
- Hammersley Family, ancestry of, 225.
- Hammersley, John W., portrait, 177; tribute to, J. Watts de Peyster, 224.
- Hamilton, Alexander, portrait, 89; organizes the first bank in N. Y., 89; interested in the case of Maj. André, 154.
- Hammond, David, his interview with Maj. André, 63.
- Hammond, Sally, Maj. André's gift to, 52.
- Hammond, Staats, Maj. André at the home of, 52.
- Handley, George, Governor of Georgia, 1788, 308.
- Harlem Heights, N. Y., the battle of, 424.
- Harp, the old-time, and modern fiddle, 510.
- Harris, George H., Aboriginal History of the Genesee Valley, 171.
- Harrison, Benjamin, President of U. S., attends the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, at N. Y., 5; his reception at Elizabeth, N. J., 6; photographic view of his embarkation for the Despatch, 7; arrival at N. Y., 13; reception to, 13; escorted through Wall St., 15; address of welcome by the scholars of public schools, 16; attends the centennial ball, 17; at St. Peter's Church, 19; address at the literary exercises in Wall St., 25; view of the President driving through Fifth Av., 25; reviews the parade, 26; attends the centennial banquet, 29; his address, 32; presented with a silver cylinder inclosing an address, 34.
- Hathorn, Col. John, ancestry of, 83.
- Hawkes, Nathan M., the first iron works in America, 404.
- Hawley, Joseph, the Northampton Statesman, his address to the minute-men, Charles Lyman Skau, 489.
- Hayden, Horace Edwin, Lee's Legion, 348; Hannastown's declaration of Independence, 349; Oliver Pollock's connection with the conquest of Ill., 1778, 414; the official call for meeting of the legislature of Va., 1865, 481; unpublished letters of Richard Henry Lee, 500.
- Hayes, Rutherford B., portrait, 19; at centennial banquet, 31; life of, noticed, 518.
- Hayes, Mrs. Rutherford B., tribute to, Mrs. Martha J. Lane, 158.
- Heard, Stephen, president of the council of Georgia, 1780, 308.
- Heaton, John I., the story of Vermont, noticed, 520.
- Helena, Montana, former name, the name of, growth of, 347; origin and meaning of the name, 350.
- Hessians, employed in the British army, 136.
- Hicks, Whitehead, his marriage and residence in N. Y. City, 150.
- Highlands, N. Y., the Philippe patent in the, 106.
- Highlanders, settle in the colony of Georgia, opposed to slavery, 289.
- Higginson, T. W., literature and literary work, 84.
- Hill, Alfred J., the Book of the U. S., 348.
- Hill, Gov. David B., portrait, 10.
- Hill, S. M., Penn's treaty with the Indians, 511.
- Historical Portraiture, curiosities of, 83.
- Hodge, Abraham, establishes the newspaper, the State Gazette of N. C., 1786, 430.
- Holland, some glimpses of, Gen. Alfred E. Lee, 58.
- Holland House, England, view of, 440.
- Holland, Lord, portrait, 451.
- Holmes, Oliver Wendell, his poem, The Last Leaf, 343; the eightieth birthday of, 343.
- Hoppin, William J., curiosities of historical portraiture, 83.
- Houston, John, Governor of Georgia, 1778 and 1784, 307.
- Howard, George E., Introduction to the local Constitutional History of U. S., noticed, 86.
- Howley, Richard, Governor of Georgia, 1780, 308.
- Huguenots, exempted from the St. Bartholomew massacre, 258.
- Huntingdon County, Canada, History of, noticed, 176.
- Hutchinson, Ellen Mackay, library of American Literature, vol. vii., noticed, 87.
- Hyde Family, ancestry of, 248.
- ILLINOIS, Historical and Statistical, noticed, 262; the conquest of, 1778, 414.
- Indians, fishing customs of the Omaha, 28; the massacres at Deerfield, Mass., 81; wit and wisdom of Keokuk, chief of the Sacs and Foxes, 163; laws among the Omahas, 160; names of places near the great lakes, noticed, 175; on Manhattan Island, 170; progress of education among the Cherokees, 261; at Milwaukee, Wis., 265; intermarry with white settlers, 266; treaty with the, in Wisconsin, 268; land on the Delaware purchased by the West India Company from the, 1629, 392; drawings of a Navajo artist, 462; Penn's treaty with the, 511.
- Iowa, rise of a great Masonic Library in, Lydia Jackson Lawrence, 371; view of the library, 372.
- Iron Works, the first in America, 404; "company of undertakers" for the, organized to work the iron are in Mass., 1640, 158.
- Irvine, Washington, his Knickerbocker History of City of N. Y., 202.
- Irwin, Jared, governor of Georgia, 1796-1797, 1806-1809, 308.

- JACKSON, James, governor of Georgia, 1798-1801, 308.
James, Bushrod W., American Reports, noticed, 87.
Jamison, Lieut.-Col. John, his conduct and agency in the capture of Maj. André, 55, 56, 148, 149, 150.
Jefferson Papers, 257.
Jeffrey, Francis, portrait, 445.
Jenkins, Charles Jones, governor of Georgia, 1805-1808, 309.
Jenks, Joseph, receives patent for improved scythe, 1655; 406; builds the first fire-engine in America, 406; first founder in brass and iron on the western continent, 406.
Jewels, the philosophy of, 169.
Johnson, Herschel V., governor of Georgia, 1833-1836, 309.
Johnson, James, provisional governor of Georgia, 1865, 309.
Johnson, J. B., oration on the discovery of America by Columbus, 319.
Johnston, Prof. Henry P., Knowlton's Rangers and the battle of Harlem Heights, 435.
Jones, Charles C. Jr., Kings, Presidents, and Governors of Georgia, 1732-1880, 307.
Journal des Savans, founded in 1665, 172.
Juneau, Solomon, portrait, 267; early settler of Milwaukee, 267; first postmaster and first mayor of Milwaukee, 268; family and wealth of, 272.
KANE, Elisha Kent, Arctic Explorations, 60.
Kelly, Alfred, Life and Work, noticed, 176.
Kelton, Dwight H., Indian names of places near the Great Lakes, vol. I., noticed, 175.
Keokuk, Chief of the Sacs and Foxes, Wit and Wisdom of, 163.
Key of Calmar, ship, arrives with Swedish colony, 395, 399, 400.
Kidd, Capt. William, marriage and residence in N. Y., 186.
Kieft, William, Director of New Netherland, organizes the first representative body in N. Y., 178; attacks the Indians, 179.
Kilbourn, Byron, portrait, 271; his interest in advancing the building up of Milwaukee, 274.
King, Horatio, unpublished letter of Stephen King, June 26, 1780, contributed by, 507.
King, Lieut. Joshua, receives Major André as a prisoner, 178.
King, Stephen, unpublished letter to his brother, June 26, 1780, on army affairs, 507.
King's Ferry, N. Y., Maj. André crosses, 49.
Kirk, Prof. T. H., Fort Perrot, Wis., established, 1685, 498.
Kit-Cat Pictures, 27, 249.
Knowlton's Rangers and the battle of Harlem Heights, 434.
Knox, Rev. John, conducts farewell services in the Middle Dutch church, 1844, 194.
L'AILLIE, Rev. Archibald, first sermon in English in the Middle Dutch church, N. Y. City, 1764, 188.
Lamb, Mrs. Martha J., The Story of the Washington Centennial, 1; portrait, 1; the General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen, N. Y., 89; tribute to Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes, 188; Historic Homes and Landmarks, III., 177; Home of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, 353; The Early Career of Lord Brougham, and some of his contemporaries, 441.
Lambert, Cornelius, coxswain of the boat which conveyed Maj. André over King's Ferry, 49.
Lambert, Henry, one of the boatmen who conveyed Maj. André over King's Ferry, 49.
Lambert, Lambert, one of the boatmen who conveyed Maj. André over King's Ferry, 49.
Land of my Birth, a poem, W. I. Crandall, 426.
Last Chance Gulch, former name of Helena, Montana, 347.
Lauphere, Lydia Jackson, rise of a great Masonic Library in Iowa, 371.
Laurens, Henry, letter to Washington, Nov. 20, 1778, 257, 433.
Lawley, Richard, favors the introduction of negroes in the colony of Georgia, 205.
Lee, Gen. Alfred E., some glimpses of Hol., 58.
Lee, Gov. Fitzhugh, remarks of, at the centennial banquet, 30.
Lee, Gen. Robert E., roster of Lee's Legion, 348.
Lemly, Lieut. Henry R., the stone images of St. Augustin, 384.
Letters, Washington to Col. Jamison, Sept. 23, 1780, on the arrest of Major André, 150; Washington on Western lands, Jan. 31, 1770, 165; Pierre Van Cortlandt, to his son, July 17, 1766, 167; John A. Campbell, April 7, 1865, on the restoration of Virginia, 221; Franklin to De Crèvecoeur, Feb. 17, 1783, on the success of steam applied to boats, 244; P. P. Walter to Gen. Armstrong, August 23, 1814, relative to enlistment of colored troops, 253; Capt. Ten Eyck to Henry Glen, Oct. 6, 1780, describing the execution of Maj. André, 255; Henry Laurens to Washington, Nov. 20, 1778, 257, 433; Charles Carroll of Carrollton, to Washington, Sept. 26, 1775, introducing Mr. Kay, 356; Lord Brougham to Lord Grey, August 30, 1833, relative to pension for Miss Marianne, 453; Charles Carroll to Washington, January 28, 1793, declining the appointment of Indian Commissioner, 506; Richard Henry Lee to Corbin Washington, Sept. 1, 1790, on family affairs, 507; Stephen King, to his brother, June 26, 1780, in regard to the movements of the army, 507; Gen. Pattison to Sir Henry Clinton, July 8, 1779, respecting the loyalty of St. John De Crèvecoeur, 512.
Lewis, Morgan, offices held by, 207.
Lewis, T. H., Old French Post at Trempealeau, Wis., 204.
Lexington, Mass., battle of, 138.
Lézay-Marnesia, his interest in Scioto lands, 476.
Library of Congress, growth of the, 1800-1889, Milton T. Adkins, 229.
Lincoln, Abraham, his restoration policy for Virginia, 209, 487; his visit to Richmond, 209.
Linnean Society, April 6th meeting, additions to the Society, 83.
Literary Journals, origin of, 172.
Literary production, the methods of, 85.
Livingston, Edward, Mayor of N. Y. City, portrait, 199; services of, 202.
Livingston, Col. James, in command at Verplanck's Point, 50.
Livingston, John, residence in N. Y. City, 189.
Livingston, Rev. John H., sermon at the re-opening of the Middle Dutch church, N. Y. City, 1790, 193.
Livingston, Peter Van Brugh, favors the discontinuance of the Dutch language in church, N. Y. City, 188.
Livingston, Gov. William, his residences in N. Y. City and N. J.; personally and family of, 189.
Loomis, L. Goodrich, first vehicle in Milwaukee, Wis., driven by, 272.
Lost Dispatch, the, noticed, 520.
Louisburg, capture of, 127.
Lowell, James Russell, remarks of, at the centennial banquet, 32.
Ludington, Gov. Harrison, portrait, 271; Mayor of Milwaukee and Governor of Wisconsin, 279; ancestry of, 270.
Lumpkin, Wilson, Governor of Georgia, 1831-1835, 309.
Lynn, Mass., iron ore at, 1642, 405.
MABIE, Caspare, Maj. André confined in the house of, 153.
MacCoun, Townsend, Historical Geography of U. S., noticed, 176.
McDaniel, Henry D., governor of Georgia, 1883-1886, 309.
McDonald, Charles J., governor of Georgia, 1839-1843, 309.
McDonald, Zenas, relic of Bradcock's field, 411.
McKay, Patrick, in favor of negro slavery, 1741, 205.
Maine Historical Society, annual meeting, election of officers, 171.
Marsh, John, genealogy of, noticed, 174.
Marsh, Lucius B., genealogy of John Marsh, noticed, 174.
Martin, John, governor of Georgia, 1782, 308.
Mason, Rev. John, pastor of the Scotch Presbyterian or Cedar Street church, N. Y. City, 1761, 188.
Masonic Library, rise of a great, in Iowa, 371.
Massachusetts, assembly dissolved for patriotic expressions, 1774, 136; new assembly elected, organize troops, 136; declared to be in rebellion by parliament, 137; scarcity of criminal executions in, 138; the first iron works in, 405; mint established in 1652, 405; the Mass. staple, 511.
Massachusetts Historical Society, collections, sixth series, vol. III., noticed, 175.
Matthews, George, governor of Georgia, 1787, 1794-1795, 308.
Mechanics' Bank, N. Y., founded, 96.

- Meeting Houses, the seats in, two centuries ago, 517.
- Menomonees, the, Indians at Milwaukee, Wis., 265.
- Mexican States, and Texas, history of the North, noticed, 263.
- Michigan Pioneer Collections, vols. xii. and xiii., noticed, 520.
- Middle Dutch church, N. Y. City, erected 1729, 187; used as a prison during the revolution, 192; repaired and re-opened, 193; view of the, 1729, 194; Franklin's experiments in the, 194; farewell services in, 194.
- Milledge, John, Governor of Georgia, 1809-1806, 308.
- Miller, Andreas, Maj. André at the house of, 50.
- Milwaukee, Wis., the romantic beginnings of Roy Singleton, 265; home of the Pottawatomes and Menomonee Indians, 265; missionaries and traders stop at, 265; the first white settler, 265; early settlers of, 267, 271, 272, 275, 276; the trade with the Indians, 266; first postmaster and first mayor of, 268; in 1839, 270; school established in, 1835, 272; the pioneer bridge of, 274; in 1835, 274; religious services in, 273; first church edifice in, 276; in 1836, 276; the panic of, 1837, 278; the rivalry between Chicago and, 279.
- Minisink Valley Historical Society, May 28th, meeting, paper on the Wellings of Warwick, by Rev. A. A. Haines, 82; semi-annual meeting, celebration of battle of Minisink, paper by C. E. Cuddeback, and poem by Peter Wells, 259.
- Minut, Peter, in charge of Swedish colony, settlement in Delaware, 194.
- Mirandeau, Jean Baptist, first white settler of Milwaukee, Wis., 265; marries an Indian maiden, 266; family and descendants of, 266.
- Mississippi and Mississippians, recollections of, noticed, 517.
- Mississippi River, the discovery of the, Henry Lee Reynolds, 37.
- Mississippi Valley, view of the, showing the site of the old French post at Trempealeau, Wis. 207.
- Mitchell, David L., governor of Georgia, 1800-1813, 1815-1817, 308.
- Mitchell, Donald G., English Lands, Letters, and Kings, noticed, 518.
- Mitchell, Maria, the astronomer, death of, 168.
- Monopolies, and the people, noticed, 439.
- Montana Historical Society, August 30th, meeting, election of officers, 367.
- Moore, George H., the celebrations in New York and Boston commemorative of the three-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, 317.
- Mormons, established in Utah, 365, 367.
- Morris, Mary, portrait, 107.
- Morris, Col. Roger, portrait, 109.
- Morse, John T., Jr., life of Benjamin Franklin, noticed, 351.
- Moses, Bernard, the Federal Government of Switzerland, 351, noticed, 351.
- Moses, John, Historical and Statistical Illinois, noticed, 369.
- Moustier, Count de, Minister from France, his opinion of Washington, 78.
- Mutual Life Insurance, N. Y. City, view of the building of the, 195, organized, assets of, 196.
- NARRAGANSETT Bay, R. I., destruction of the British schooner Gaspee, 1772, 133.
- Navajo artist, the drawings of a, R. W. Skufeldt, 462.
- Nave, Ella M. M., acrostic by John Quincy Adams, 469.
- Negro, the introduction of the, in Georgia, 280; problem and its radical solution, noticed, 517.
- Nelson, William, the pamphlet, an examination of the various charges against Aaron Burr, 170.
- Newcomb, Charles H., origin of the phrase, "frilles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle," 249.
- Newdigate, John, ancestry and descendants of, 432.
- Newgate, John, ancestry and descendants of, 432.
- New York, opposed to the independence of the colonies, 137; financial condition of, in 1813, 328.
- New York City, centennial of the inauguration of Washington, held in, 1; the memorial arch, 3; divine services, 4, 20; views of the military and naval parade, 8, 9, 11, 13, 15, 19, 22, 25, 27, 33; President Harrison's arrival and reception, 13, 18; address of scholars of public schools to the President, 16; the centennial ball, 17; the centennial banquet, 29; the civic parade, 33; sketch of the General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen, 80; first bank in, 80; buildings of the Mechanics' Society, 93, 95, 103; Mechanics' Bank founded, 96; Apprentices' library founded, 98; interior of Apprentices' library, 101; Colonial Congress organize, 128; the two gates in, 177; the Damen plantation in, 177; maps of early farms and estates in, 178; the first representative body, 179; Indians, 179; view of farm-house, 1646, 180; Equitable Building, 181; Stuyvesant succeeds Kieft as Gov., his services, 182; the first male child born in, 184; bear hunt in, 185; in 1691-1692, 185, 186; French church erected 1704, 186; view of the French church, 187; Middle Dutch church erected, 1729, 187; church services in Dutch, 187; first Quaker meeting-house, 188; Wall St. Presbyterian church, 188; Scotch Presbyterian or Cedar St. church, 188; churches prior to the revolution, 188; the Moot club, 189; view of Presbyterian church, Cedar St., 189; early fashionable residences, 189; Livingston sugar house used as a prison, 190; view of the sugar house prison, 1776, 191; occupied by the British, 191; view of the real estate exchange, 191; map of, 1776, 192; Middle Dutch church used as a prison, 192; the fire of 1776, 193; view of the Middle Dutch church, 194; view of the Mutual Life Insurance Building, 193; view of the first building of N. Y. Society Library, 197; Society Library founded, 198; yellow fever of 1803, 202; Tammany Society organized, 317; celebration of the three-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, 319; monument to Columbus, 319, 321; Bowen's Museum in, 323; the battle of Harlem Heights, 434; Scioto associates meet in, 1790, 473.
- New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, Oct. meeting, paper on early deeds of N. Y., by Gen. James Grant Wilson, 514; Nov. meeting, paper on our Norse Ancestors, by Prof. H. H. Boyesen, 514.
- New York Historical society, June meeting, paper on the Methods and Characteristics of the Administration of Washington, by Edward F. De Lancey, 81; October meeting, paper on the Knowlton Rangers and the battle of Harlem Heights, by Henry P. Johnston, 434; Nov. meeting, paper on the Chaplains of the American army, from 1775, by Asa Bird Gardiner, 193.
- New York Society Library, view of the first building of the, 1795, 197; organized committees and trustees of, 198.
- Niagara, N. Y., Journal of a trip to, in 1835, 331.
- Norfolk, Va., destroyed by fire, 1776, 139.
- North Carolina, the earliest newspapers in, 429.
- North Carolina Historical Society, Sept. 19th meeting, paper on Books, Newspapers, and Printing in N. C., by Stephen B. Weeks, 434.
- North, Lord, conciliatory measures of, towards the colonies, 138.
- Northampton, Mass., address to the minute-men of, 1774, 492.
- North-western History, early, 82.
- Notes, July—Fishing customs of the Omaha Indians, 78; the French Minister, Moustier's opinion of Washington, 78; American possibilities, 78; an ancient Bible, 79.
- August*—Maria Mitchell, the Astronomer, 168; English and Scotch capitalists, 168; Thackeray, 168; Puritanism, 169; Indian laws among the Omahas, 169; the philosophy of jewels, 169.
- September*—Settlement of Western N. Y., 256; St. John's College, Md., centenary, 256; land tortoise, 1717; Johnston's new school history of U. S., 256; celebration of the commemoration of Washington's inauguration at Annapolis, Md., 257.
- October*—Helena, Montana, 347; Dr. Franklin's pulpit, 347; uses of electricity, 347.
- November*—Providence gingerbread, 431; Dickens on Prescott's work, 431; valuable historical manuscript, 431.
- December*—The earliest book-making, 509; Silas Wright, 509; the old-time harp and modern fiddle, 510; meeting-house seats two centuries ago, 511.

Nott, Charles C., The Story of Brave, Beautiful Margaret Schuyler, a ballad, 458.
Nufiez, Alvar, voyage to Florida, 38.

O'CONNER, B. F., the education of boys, 261.

Oglethorpe, Gen. James Edward, his opposition to negro slavery in Georgia, 285, 289; special agent of the trustees in the colonization of Georgia, 297.

Ohio, history of, noticed, 86.
Ohio Company, The Scioto Purchase in 1787 by the, 470; Private Contract Provision in Ordinance of 1787, 483.

Omaha Indians, fishing customs, 78; laws among the, 169.

Oneida Historical Society, May 15th meeting, lecture on the early North-western History, by A. A. Graham, 82; Sept. 30th meeting, reports, etc., 434; Oct. 28th meeting, papers on Silas Wright, Governor of N. Y., 1833-37, by Rev. Daniel Ballou, 514.

O'Reilly, Henry, biographical sketch of, 171.

Original Documents—Letter of Washington, Jan. 31, 1770, on Western lands, 164; letter from Pierre Van Cortlandt to his son, July 17, 1765, 167; Capt. Walter's letter to Gen. Armstrong, Aug. 23, 1814, relative to enlistment of colored troops, 253; act of assessment for Oyster Bay, L. I., May 1, 1717, 253; letter of Capt. Ten Eyck to Henry Glen, Oct. 6, 1780, describing the execution of Maj. André, 255; letter of Charles Carroll to Washington, January 28, 1793, declining the appointment of Indian Commissioner, 506; letter of Richard Henry Lee to Corbin Washington, Sept. 1, 1790, on family affairs, 307; letter of Stephen King to his brother, June 26, 1780, in relation to movements of the army, 507.

Oyster Bay, L. I., act of assessment, May 1, 1717, 253.

PARKER, Mrs. Amasa J., sketch of, family and ancestry, 250.

Parker, Henry, president of the colony of Georgia, 1751-1753, 307.

Parkhurst, Rev. Charles H., D.D., extract of memorial sermon on the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 4.

Parsons, Samuel H., his interest in the Scioto lands, 471.

Parvin, Theodore S., sketch of, 372; portrait, 375.

Pattison, Gen. James, letter to Sir Henry Clinton, July 8, 1779, 512.

Faulding, John, one of the captors of Maj. André, 53; his interview with André, 53, 54.

Pelletreau, William S., the charges against Aaron Burr, 79; the pamphlet, charges against Aaron Burr, 79; the Philpse Patent in the Highlands, 106.

Penn, William, his treaty with the Indians, 511.

"Perfection is no trifle," the phrase, 257, 340.

Perry, Rt. Rev. William Perry, D.D., officiates at commemorative service of the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 4.

Peter, John, the case of, a kidnapped negro, 1746, 297.

Pharaoh, an appeal to, noticed, 517.

Philadelphia, Continental Congress meet at, 135; declaration of independence, signed, 140.

Philpse, Adolph, portrait, 112.

Philpse, Mary, portrait, 107; the tradition of Washington wooing, 109, 432.

Philpse, Patent, in the Highlands, the, 106; map of the, 111.

Pinkney, Rev. Charles Cotesworth, D.D., officiates at commemorative service of the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 4.

Pineda, Alonso Alvarez de, voyage to Florida, 38.

Pin-money, origin of the term, 511.

Pintard, John, in N. Y. City during the revolution, 193; founder of the first historical society, 317.

Pintard, Lewis, commissary of American prisoners, 193.

Pitt, William, public services of, 125, 134, 137.

Platt, Col. Richard, his interest in the Scioto lands, 471.

Playfair, William, organizes society of the Scioto, at Paris, for the sale of lands, 471.

Pollock, Oliver, his connection with the conquest of Illinois, 1778.

Rev. Horace Edwin Hayden, 414.

Poole, M. E., Huguenots exempted from the St. Bartholomew massacre, 258.

Porter, Admiral David D., President Lincoln's visit to Richmond, Va., 209.

Potter, Rt. Rev. Henry C., D.D., memorial sermon on the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 20.

Pottawatomies, the Indians, at Milwaukee, Wis., 265.

Preston, Capt. Thomas, commands the troops at the Boston massacre, 132.

Printing Press, the first in America, 429.

Providence, R. I., cannon seized at, 1774, 137; dimensions of gingerbread won as a wager, 1821, 431.

Pryber, Christian, proposes founding a colony in Georgia for fugitive negroes and others, 287.

Pullen, C. L., genealogy of the Pullen family, 170.

Puritan Character, 433.

Puritanism, 160.

Putnam, Gen. Rufus, his interest in the Scioto lands, 471, 473, 475.

QUERIES. July—Commodore Truxton's log-book, 79; author of the pamphlet "charges against Aaron Burr," 79; the fair maid of Kent, 80.

August—Commodore Truxton's log-book, 170; Pullen family, 170.

September—Henry Laurens' letter to Washington, Nov. 20, 1778, 257; Jefferson papers, 257; kit-cat pictures, 257; the phrase, "perfection no trifle," 257.

October—Azariah Crane's silver bowl, 348; Lee's legion, 348; the book of the United States, 348.

November—Washington's wooing of Mary Philpse, 432; ancestry of John Newgate or Newdigate, 432; Princess Elizabeth's maids of honor, 433; puritan character, 433.

December—The Massachusetts staple, 511; a feather in one's cap, 511; the famous treaty with the Indians, 511; pin-money, 511. Quincy, Josiah, defends the British troops for the Boston massacre, 132.

RABUN, William, governor of Georgia, 1817-1818, 308.

Raleigh Register, newspaper, established, 1790, 430.

Raymond, M. D. sketch of Col. William S. Smith of the revolution, 74.

Real Estate Exchange, N. Y. City, view of the, 101.

Reed, Isaac, Maj. André at the house of, 54.

Reformed Dutch church, N. Y., erected in 1720, 187; used as a prison during the revolution, 192; repaired and re-opened, 193; view of, 194; Franklin's experiments in the, 194; farewell services in the, 194.

Replies, July—The last surviving soldier of the revolution, 80.

August—The last surviving soldier of the revolution, 170; author of pamphlet charges against Aaron Burr, 170.

September—Wooden swords, 258; famous authors, 258; the Huguenots, 258; the last surviving soldier of the revolution, 258.

October—Hannastown's declaration of independence, 349; kit-cat pictures, 349; the phrase, "perfection no trifle," 349.

November—The Book of the United States, 433; Henry Laurens' letter to Washington, 433.

December—The patriotism of St. John De Crèvecoeur, 512.

Reynolds, Henry Lee, the discovery of the Mississippi, 37.

Reynolds, Capt. John, first royal governor of Georgia, 305, 307.

Rhode Island, ancestry of thirty-three Rhode Islanders, noticed, 175.

Rhode Island Historical Society, May 14th meeting, paper on the Curiousities of Historical Portraiture, by William J. Hoppin, 83.

July 2d meeting, election of officers, sketch of the society, by Secretary Perry, 171; October 1st meeting, paper on the location of Pierce's fight, by James O. Whitney, 434; Oct. 20th meeting, paper on an old English chronicle, by Prof. James M. Hoppin, 513.

Richmond, Va., President Lincoln's visit to, 209; official call for the legislature of Va. to meet at, 1865, 487.

Riddle, A. G., life of Benjamin Wade, noticed, 174.

Robinson, Beverly, Maj. André at the house of, 151.

Rochefontaine, Col., mentioned, 472, 477.

Rochester Historical Society, June 13th meeting, paper on the Ab-

- original History of the Genesee Valley, by George H. Harris; tributes to the memory of Henry E. Rochester and Henry O'Reilly, by Mrs. C. M. Curtis and Mrs. Parker, 171.
- Romer, James, one of the captors of Maj. André, 53.
- Rowlands, Walter, engraving of Copley's painting, Charles I. demanding the five impeached members, noticed, 174.
- Rudolph, Lewis Charles, Prince of Wirtemberg, a slave in Georgia, his memorial to the king, 1743, 296.
- Ruger, Thomas H., military governor of Georgia, 1868, 309.
- Rumsey, James, his controversy with John Fitch in regard to the steamboat, 244.
- ST. Andrew's Club, Savannah, Ga., their opposition to Gen. Oglethorpe, in favor of slavery, 289; remove to Charleston, S. C., 294.
- St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., centennial of, 286.
- St. Paul's Church, N. Y. City, commemorative services of the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, held in, 4, 20.
- Salisbury, Mrs. Edward E., the Willoughby family descendants of the fair maid of Kent, 80.
- Sallo, Dennis de, founder of first literary journal, 172.
- Salt Lake City, Utah, views of the fort, 359, eagle gate, 361; tithing houses, 363; the three wife house, 365; home of Brigham Young, 369.
- Salzburgers, from Germany, settle in the colony of Georgia, their opposition to slavery, 289, 290.
- San Augustin, village of Tolima, Columbia, the stone images of, Henry R. Lemly, 384; views of ten images, 386, 388, 390.
- Saratoga Monument Association, annual meeting, election of officers, 350.
- Sargent, Winthrop, agent of Ohio company, purchases the Scioto lands, 1787, 470.
- Savannah, Ga., demands the introduction of negroes as slaves, 288.
- Schley, William, governor of Georgia, 1835-1837, 309.
- Schuyler, Margaret, the story of brave, beautiful, a poem, Charles C. Nott, 453.
- Scioto Purchase, the, in 1787. E. C. Davies, 470.
- Scioto Society, organized in Paris, 1789, 471.
- Scomp, Prof. H. A., Georgia, the only free colony, how the negro came, 280.
- Scotch Presbyterian Church, N. Y. City, established, 1761, 188; view of, 189.
- Scott, Gen. Winfield, treaty with the Sacs and Foxes Indians, 163.
- See, Isaac, one of the captors of Maj. André.
- Sellar, Robert, History of Huntingdon County, noticed, 176.
- Seton, William, St. John De Crève-cœur, first French Consul to New York after the revolution, 234.
- Shaw, Charles Lyman, Joseph Hawley, the Northampton statesman, his address to the minute-men, 489.
- Sheldon, Col. Elisha, his connection with the capture of Maj. André, 148.
- Sherman, John, photographic group of, and others, 9.
- Shufeldt, R. W., the drawings of a Navajo artist, 482.
- Singleton, Roy, the romantic beginnings of Milwaukee, Wis., 265.
- Slavery, the introduction of, in Georgia, 280; in S. C., 271; reasons against the admission of negroes into Ga., 285; negro insurrection in S. C., 1739, 290; regulations for the negroes in Georgia, 302.
- Smith, Adam, favors the independence of the colonies, 134.
- Smith, James M., Governor of Ga., 1872-1890, 309.
- Smith, John F. D., M.D., narrative of his capture and escape from the Americans, 1775, 421.
- Smith, Joshua Hett, his connection with Arnold's treason, 49, 50; arrested, 152.
- Smith, Rev. Sydney, portrait, 443.
- Smith, Col. William S., of the revolution, sketch of, 74; family of, 76.
- Society of the Cincinnati, banquet in commemoration of the centennial of the inauguration of Washington as president, 4; attend memorial services at St. Paul's church, 4.
- Soissan, Jean Antoine Chais de, agent for the sale of Scioto lands, 472.
- Sons of Liberty, origin of the, 128; destroy tea at Boston, 133.
- South Carolina, her negro population, as a colony, 281, 285; negro insurrection in, 1739, 290.
- Southern California Historical Society, officers and work of, 434.
- Spain, offers prizes for the best essay on the discovery of America by Columbus, 344.
- Spencer, Caroline, Journal of a trip to Niagara in 1835, 331.
- Stamp Act, opposition to the, 128.
- Stanton, Theodore, Gen. Grant and the French, 502.
- State Gazette of N. C., newspaper established, 1786, 430.
- Stedman, Edmund Clarence, library of American Literature, vol. vii., noticed, 87.
- Stephens, Alexander H., Governor of Georgia, 1882-1883, 300.
- Stephens, Col. William, secretary of the trustees in Georgia, 1737, his position regarding the introduction of negroes into Ga., 285; president of the colony of Georgia, 1743-1751, 307.
- Stewart, Andrew, establishes the newspaper the Cape Fear Gazette and Wilmington Advertiser, 1864, 430.
- Stiles, Robert, Lincoln's Restoration Policy for Virginia, 209.
- Stoddard, William O., Lives of the Presidents, vol. x., noticed, 218.
- Stone, William L., Samuel Downing the last surviving soldier of the revolution, 80, 258.
- Storrs, Rev. Richard S., D.D., officiates at the literary exercises of the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 23.
- Strang, Major, Maj. André at the house of, 51.
- Stuyvesant, Gov. Peter, succeeds Kieft, character and services of, 182.
- Swedes, settle in Wilmington, Delaware, 1638, 393; the first colony of, 394; dwellings of the, 379.
- Switzerland, the Federal Government of, noticed, 351.
- TALBOT, Matthew, governor of Georgia, 1818-1819, 308.
- Tallmadge, Maj. Benjamin, takes charge of Maj. André, 57, 148.
- Tammany Society, organized, 317; celebrates the three-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, 319; monument to the memory of Columbus, 319, 321.
- Tappen, N. Y., Maj. André executed at, 154.
- Tarrytown Historical Society, organized, 82.
- Tattnall, Josiah, governor of Georgia, 1801-1802, 308.
- Taylor, Rev. William W., England's struggle with the American colonies, 121; some of the beginnings of Delaware, Wilmington settled by the Swedes, 1638, 393.
- Tea, the duty on, 1767, 131; destroyed in Boston, 133.
- Telfair, Edward, governor of Georgia, 1786, 1790-1793, 308.
- Ten Eyck, Capt. H. D., unpublished letter to Harry Glen, Oct. 6, 1780, on the execution of Maj. André, 254.
- Tétard, Rev. Louis, mentioned, 236.
- Texas, History of the North Mexican States, and, noticed, 263.
- Thackeray, W. M., his mode of literary work, 168.
- Thornburn, Grant, his gardens in N. Y. City, 197.
- Thoreau, Henry D., sketch of, 84.
- Ticonderoga, captured, 138.
- Tippet, Mehetable, her marriage, 236.
- Toledo, Ohio, history of, noticed, 437.
- Toner, J. M., Washington's rules of civility and decent behavior, 251.
- Torkillus, Rev. Reorus, arrives on the Delaware, 1638, with Swedish colony, 395.
- Towns, George W., governor of Georgia, 1847-1851, 309.
- Trempealeau, Wis., the old French post at, T. H. Lewis, 204; map of the site, 205; remains of the old fireplace, 206; view of the Miss. Valley, showing the site of the French post, 207.
- Treutlen, John Adam, first Republican governor of Georgia, 1777, 307.
- Trifles make Perfection, the phrase, 257, 349.
- Troup, George M., governor of Georgia, 1823-1827, 308.
- Truxton, Commodore Thomas, log-book of, 79, 170.
- Tucker, Dean, favors the independence of the colonies, 134.
- Tupper, Benjamin, his interest in the Scioto lands, 471.
- Tupper Family, antiquity of the, 324.
- Tupper, Prof. Frederick Allison, antiquity of the Tupper Family, 324.
- Turchin, John B., the battle of Chickamauga, noticed, 263.

UNDERHILL, Isaac, Maj. André at the house of, 51.

United States, introduction to the local constitutional history, noticed, 86; the fisheries and fishery industries in, noticed, 87; declaration of independence, 140; treaty of peace, 1783, 142; election of first president of the, 142; English and Scotch capitalists' investments in, 168; historical geography of, noticed, 175; growth of the library of Congress, 229; enlistment of colored troops, 1814, 253; Johnston's school history of, 256; the book of the, 348, 433; the first printing press in, 430; the Scioto purchase in, 1787, 470; private contract provision in ordinance of, 1787, 483; first editions of the Bible printed in, 501; lives of the presidents of, vol. x., noticed, 518. Utah, a chapter from the history of, Hubert Howe Bancroft, 358; view of fort, 1848, 359; the eagle gate, 361; tithing houses, 363; the three wife house, 365; home of Brigham Young, 369.

VAN CORTLANDT, Pierre, letter to his son, July 17, 1766, on affairs at Peekskill, N. Y., 167.

Van Cortlandt, Mrs. Pierre, unpublished letters of Pierre Van Cortlandt, 167; of Capt. Ten Eyck, contributed by, 251.

Van Ness, William P., author of the pamphlet "an examination of the charges against Aaron Burr," by "Aristides," 170.

Van Siclen, George W., tribute to Hooper Cumming Van Vorst, 455.

Van Sinderen, Adrian, narrative of the capture and escape of Dr. John F. D. Smith, from the Americans, 1775, contributed by, 421.

Van Tienhoven, Cornelis, secretary province of N. Y., 177; leads attack on the Indians, 179.

Van Vorst, Hooper Cumming, tribute to, George W. Van Siclen, 455; portrait, 457.

Van Wart, Isaac, one of the captors of Maj. André, 53, 55.

Vanwort, William, one of the boatmen who conveyed Maj. André over King's Ferry, 49.

Vergennes, Count de, his memorial to the king of France for aiding the American colonies, 435.

Verplanck Family, ancestry of, 183.

Vieau, Jacques, early settler of Green Bay, Wis., marries an Indian princess, 266.

Vigo, François, advances money for expedition of Gen. Clark, 414.

Vincennes, Bissot M. de, founder of Vincennes, Ind., 144.

Vincennes, Ind., the founding of, Post, J. P. Dunn, Jr., 143.

Vinje, John, the first male child born in N. Y. City, 184.

Vinje, Mrs., an early resident of N. Y., her marriage, 177.

Virginia opposes the Stamp Act, 128; Lincoln's Restoration Policy for, Robert Stiles, 209; address of the legislature of, to the people, 1865, 217; official call for meeting of legislature, 1865, 487.

Vulture, Arnold escapes to the British ship, 150.

WADE, Benjamin F., life of, noticed, 174.

Waggoner, Clark, an ancient Bible, 79; history of Toledo, Ohio, noticed, 437.

Walker, Col. Benjamin, agent for the Scioto lands, 477.

Walker, George H., portrait, 269; early settler of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 273; elected mayor, 274.

Wallace, William, origin of the term pin-money, 511.

Walter, Capt. P. P., unpublished letter to Gen. Armstrong, Aug. 23, 1814, on the enlistment of colored troops, 253.

Walton, George, governor of Georgia, 1779 and 1780, 308.

War of 1861, Lincoln's Restoration Policy for Virginia, 209, 487; the battle of Chickamauga, noticed, 263; Lee's legion, 348; the Lost Dispatch, noticed, 520.

Warner, Charles Dudley, American possibilities, 78.

Warren, Rev. E. Walpole, D.D., extract of memorial sermon on the centennial of the inauguration of Washington, 4.

Warton, England, the Washingtons and their connection with, noticed, 263.

Washington Centennial, at New York City, April 30, and May 2, 1889, celebration of the inauguration of Washington as president, 1; organization and officers of, 2; committees of the, 2, 7, 8, 12, 23, 17, 21; view of triumphal arch, 3; divine services, 4, 20; President Harrison's journey to N. Y., 7; the naval parade, 8, 9, 11, 13; arrival of the president, 13; reception to the president, 14; views of the military parade, 15, 19, 22, 25, 27, 33; the literary exercises, 21; the civic parade, 33; the loan exhibition, 35; at Annapolis, Md., 257.

Washington, George, centennial of the inauguration of, as president of U. S., 1, 257; and William the Silent—a parallel, 41; a relic of Washington's saddle, a poem, 76; the French Minister Moustier's opinion of, 78; the methods and characteristics of the administration of, 87; his opposition to the rule of England, 139; member of Congress, 140; appointed commander-in-chief of the army, 141; elected first president of U. S., 142; informed of the arrest of Maj. André, 149; letter to Col. Jameson on the arrest of André, 150; orders an examination of André, 153; approves the execution of André, 154; unpublished letter from, on Western lands, Jan. 31, 1770, 165; rules of civility and decent behavior of, 251; the family of, and their connection with Warton, England, noticed, 263; the tradition of, wooing Mary Philipse, 432.

Weaver, John, early settler of Milwaukee, Wis., 276.

Webb, Col. Samuel B., meets with Maj. André, 51.

Weeks, Stephen B., books, newspapers, and printing, in North Carolina in the eighteenth century, 429, 434.

Welling Family, of Warwick, 83.

Wells, Daniel, Jr., portrait, 273; early settler of Milwaukee, Wis., services of, 274.

Wells, George, president of the council of Georgia, 1780, 308.

Wereat, John, president of the executive council of Georgia, 1779, 307.

Wesley, Rev. Charles, his views respecting the negro, 293.

West India Company, purchase land from the Indians, 1628, 303.

West Point, N. Y., Maj. André a prisoner at, 152.

West, Thomas, the third Lord Delaware, governor of Virginia, 403.

Western lands, in 1770, 165.

Western New York, early settlement of, 1795, 256.

Wheeler, William F., Helena, Montana, 347.

Whitefield, Rev. George, in favor of negro slaves, 293.

Whitlock, Walter, origin of the phrase, a feather in one's cap, 511.

Whitman, Henry, the Washingtons and their connection with Warton, noticed, 263.

Whittier, John Greenleaf, "The Vow to Washington," a poem, 24.

William III., and Washington, a parallel, 41.

Williams, Abraham, one of the captors of Maj. André, 53, 54.

Williams, David, one of the captors of Maj. André, 53.

Williams, Robert, a negro merchant, favors the introduction of negroes into the colony of Georgia, 289.

Williams, Roger, descendants of, noticed, 175.

Willing, Thomas, founder of Wilmington, Delaware, 402.

Willingtown, former name of Wilmington, 402.

Willoughby Family, descendants of, the fair maid of Kent, 80.

Wilmington, Delaware, settled by the Swedes, 1638, 393; founded 1731, former name of, 402; origin of the name, 402.

Winthrop, John, Jr., his interest in the first iron works in America, 405.

Winthrop, Robert C., sketch of, 72.

Wirtemberg, Prince, a slave in Georgia, his memorial to the king, 1743, 296.

Wisconsin, the first school district in, 272.

Wisconsin Historical Society, manuscript collection, 431.

Wooden Swords, 258.

Wooley, Rev. Charles, his bear hunt in N. Y. City, 1678, 185.

Wright, Sir James, third royal governor of Georgia, 1760-1782, 307.

Wright, Reuben, Maj. André at the home of, 55.

Wright, Gov. Silas, sketch of, 509, 514.

YALE College, class of 1855, noticed, 439.

Yerkes, John, one of the captors of Maj. André, 53.

Young, Brigham, view of the home of, 369.